GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

LOCAL AND MUNICIPAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

From M.R.Ry. P. RAMA RAO, Tahsildar of Hadgali, to the Collector of Bellary (through the Head Assistant Collector), dated 1st March 1895.

I beg to submit my report on the sanitary arrangements made during the jatra at Mylar in this taluk.

2. The jatra commenced from 10th to 15th February 1895. The Karanika ceremony took place on the 12th. The Karanika this year was "ಮುಳುಬೇಳೆಮಾಡು". It means that the fall of rain and the growth of crops will be abundant.

3. There was a gathering of about 30,000 pilgrims, 1,715 cattle and 2,656 carts and conveyances of all sorts.

4. A good staff of scavengers was entertained with Kolkars to supervise it and the bazaars were swept daily and the sweepings carted away outside the village. Eight latrines were erected—four for the use of males and four for females. Both males and females freely resorted to them.

5. River Tungabhadra which passes by the side of the village was divided into three parts, the upper part being set apart for drinking purposes, the middle for bathing and the lowest for washing the cattle. Four temporary water-sheds were also erected.

6. A temporary hospital was erected with sufficient accommodation on high ground and the hospital assistant of this place was in charge of it.

7. There were no epidemics during the jatra.

8. The general health of the public was, on the whole, good.

9. Tolls * were levied on cattle, carts, &c., as in the last year for the purpose of making the jatra a self-supporting one. It is recommended that improvements towards roads and sources of water-supply may be made when the funds are available.

* Rs. 218 were collected.

10. Rupees 250 were sanctioned by the President, Taluk Board, for the necessary sanitary arrangements being made during the jatra. The necessary vouchers, &c., will be submitted to that officer with the statement of expenditure incurred during the jatra.

11. In conclusion, I beg to state that the arrangements made were satisfactory.

12. The necessary reports in the forms prescribed in G.O., No. 1178 L., dated 29th May 1893, Local and Municipal, and the hospital assistant's letter, are enclosed herein.

Bellary.	B. Muhammad Sharif, Hospital Assistant, Hadgali.	Mylar festival. Held in Mylar, a village in the Hadgali taluk.	12th February 1895.	About 30,000.	Shops were arranged in streets sufficiently wide, shops of one sort or kind, i.e., dealing in the same article, being located in one line. Necessary steps were taken against pilgrims committing nuisances anywhere they pleased. The refuse of the town, bazaar and streets was deposited without the town at a great distance.	The supply of drinking water was obtained from the Tungabhadra running by the side of the village. Necessary steps were also taken for erecting four water-sheds. The river was marked out by the Tahsildar into sections; one section was set apart for drinking purposes, another for bathing purposes and so forth.	The conservancy establishment consisted of a good staff of sweepers and toties with Kolhars supervising their work. Suitable places were selected for construction of latrines far away from water sources. Eight latrines—four for males and four for females—were constructed on the trench system and they were cleaned twice a day.	None.	Seven patients were admitted for treatment in the hospital erected with two compartments on a sufficiently high ground:— One Worms. One Conjunctivitis. Two Colic. One Rheumatism. One Ague. One Generative.	The number of toties employed and the latrines were less than requisite. In other respects, the arrangements were satisfactory.	(Signed) W. G.
