by which most of the inhabited area is surrounded in this town. Thus is obviated the necessity of the house owners to attach privies to their houses even where that can be done without violating Sanitary regulations. This is another retrograde step in the direction of extending the system of private scavenging.

3. Para 3 of the G.O There are 32 yards in this town where ten or more heads of Cattle, or twenty or more number of sheep or goats are kept.

The appeals preferred in this connection were disposed off and already twenty yards have been licensed and coercive process is being resorted to for the remainder.

It is repeated that these will also be licensed within the close of the month.

Sir,

With reference to G. O. No. 996 for (Local and Municipal), dated 20th June 95, recording with remarks, the Sanitary Commissioner's report on this Municipality for 1894-95 I have the honor to submit as follows, 2. Para 2 of the G. O.: Almost all the houses peculiar to this town are so constructed that there are no open spaces attached to them, and in some of the few cases where there happen to be any, there are wells in close proximity whereof, on sanitary grounds, no latrine shall be kept. The present section of the Nuisance Act which seems as to make the Commission of nuisance on any public street, lane, or thoroughfare alone an offence affords to the people the facility of resorting to the field
