CURRENT No. 3943

From
The President, Saluk Board, Sivaganga.

To
The President, District Board,
Madura.

Sir,

I am submitting herewith the enclosed records, I have the honor to state that the 15th and 16th miles of Road No 14 (Melur to Tiruchuli) are within the jurisdiction of this Saluk Board and the supervision and cost of maintenance of avenues on these two miles of the road are under the management of this Board. But since the formation of the Saluk Boards in 1886, the Saluk Board of Melur erroneously credited the sale proceeds of avenues on these two miles of the road to that Saluk Fund as the sales were conducted by the Revenue Inspector of Tiruvathur Zirka, Melur Saluk. However when the Sahildar of Melur submitted the sale list of avenue produce on Road No 7 and 14 for Garli 1301 for confirmation by that Board, a resolution was passed by it that the sale of produce of trees between 15th and 16th miles near Tirupavanam should be reported to the President, Saluk Board, Sivaganga; and in another resolution of Melur Saluk Board, No 71 of 1893, the adjustment of Rs 52-3- the sale proceeds from 1886 to 1893, was sanctioned in favor of this Saluk Board. The Treasury Deputy Collector was then then requested to make the necessary adjustments. But in his No. 301-8-94 he stated that the sum may be adjusted from the account of the Melur Saluk Fund on refund bills, if sanction for such refunds is obtained from the Local Government under Rule 13, Chapter III of the Account and Audit Rules.

3. I therefore request that you will be good enough to cause necessary steps to be taken for the adjustment of Rs 52-3- to the accounts of the Saluk Board.
