Sir,

In reply to your memorandum
No. 688 dated 17th May 1895, I Local & Municipal

have the honour to submit the following information on the points raised:-

1. The appointment last held by the pensioner was that of a first class Constable of the Chingleput Police on a salary of Rs 8

2. He was retired as per G. O. No. 1294 dated 17th October 1888, and the amount of pension is Rs 4 per month. The class of pension is Retiring

3 His present age is 51.

4. There were no specially strong public grounds for his reemployment.

The Union Chairman reports that the pensioner was appointed on the ground that he would be trustworthy being a pensioner. He seems to be fit to do his present work.
