Sir,

In reply to your letter dated 28th May 1895 I have the honor to inform you that to the best of my recollection I have been served with notices for attendance for the following meetings only. Namely meetings of 2nd March 95, 15th March 95, & 7th May & 23rd May 95.

On the 2nd March, I had to attend the Panoor Municipi Court, 10 miles away from here & was engaged there till 5 p. m.

On the 15th March, besides appeals in the District Court, I had small Cause suits for trial before the sub judge who generally sits till late in the evening and did so on that day.

On the 7th May I was sick

As for the 23rd May I wanted to attend that day especially as I thought the nomination of the member for the legislative Council will be considered and I said so to Councillor Mr. Balakrishna Prabhoo; but I was prevented from attending the Council as I had Cases in the joint Magistrate's Court &
