Rs 100 during "Dasara" festival.

Soon after the opening of the Salay Resulu school in the village his school was amalgamated into it & he was employed as a teacher of the amalgamated school on Rs 5 per mensem. As he had qualified himself by passing the primary school examination and the written & practical portions of the departmental examination, and the classes in his charge were of full strength & were satisfactory, he was given the above increase.

3. With reference to para 4 (4) of the G.O. under reply, I have the honor to report that arrangements have been made to have the vaccination work done in the 23 villages newly added to Kalyandurg Taluk by the existing staff.

the last two teachers of an important school in a costly place like Waaakonda were considered very small & hence an increase of 1 Rupee to each master was proposed.

(d) The school at Kona Konda has over 110 pupils on the rolls and is now managed by 3 teachers. The increase of Rs 2 to the 2nd master from Rs 6 to Rs 8 and the employment of a third teacher on Rs 6 is reported to be necessary by the President of the Ghaty Taluk Board.

(e) Increase of one rupee to the pay of the 3rd master at Haidupur and Madakalva was sanctioned for teaching gymnastics instead of having separate gymnastic instructors on Rs 5 each.

2. The pay of the 2nd master of the Ghelmatu school was raised from Rs 5 to Rs 6 on the following grounds. Before opening a Salay Resulu school in the village the teacher had a private school of his own, & as such he was getting a good income in the shape of fees and other periodical presents from parents. He was getting
