In G.O. no $\frac{1060A\ M}{5\cdot 7\cdot 95}$ a year's le to Mr Niell Cook the Health Officer, Madras Municipality and the Preside was told to submit recommendatio after consulting the Surgeon-General for filling the vacancy. A commissio officer is of course out of the questio and the Surgeon-General as appears from Col: Moore's d.o. attached ha no Assistant Surgeon to recommend.

He advises advertising. Col: Moore, however, thinks this useless and forwards the only application he has received which is on behalf of a Mr Hubert Marshall with a request that his appointment may be sanctioned.
Col: Moore ~~has~~ knows nothing persona of Mr Marshall and apparently has never seen him, he being now in medical charge of an emigrant t he says that his testimonials appear be good and that he is the son of the Deputy Master Attendant and on these grounds recommends him. Orders are solicited whether the recommendation may be accepted or whether Col: Moore should be told to advertise the vacancy.

Mr. Marshall seems to be quite a young man but his testimonials are good. Col Moore is not likely to by advertising find anything better.
