To. The Chief Secretary to Government
Local & Municipal. Fort St George
Madras

Sir,

I respectfully request that you will be pleased to inform me whether a Honorary Bench Magistrate, being a Municipal Councillor, can offer himself as a Candidate for Chairmanship without resigning his seat as the Board: I am to be ask this question as the Election has actually taken place in this Municipality as one election is very shortly to be held to fill up the Chairmanship. I respectfully solicit the favour of a very early answer.

Yours

to my Query.

I beg to remain

SUBJECT.

Requesting to be informed whether a Honorary Bench Magistrate, being a municipal Councillor, can offer himself as a candidate for chairmanship without resigning his seat on the Bench.

CS. / order

The pet:. will be informed that the Govt. has frequently held that it is inadvisable that a Chairman of a Municipal Council should be also a Bench Magistrate, but that there is no legal obstacle to an Honorary Magistrate offering himself for election as Chairman.
