Read G.O. dated 20-5-1895.

no 866 M. L.V. M.

Reference to para 2nd of Sanitary Commission's notes of inspection. The erection of new thatched huts, within 20 yards of Sub-Commissioner's notes tautial tiled houses will be prohibited from 1st September 1895: when sanction is given for erection of thatched huts near tilled houses, owners will be required to make proper arrangements for drainage and latrines.

Para 5 d. The watchman was suspended for 2 months and was afterwards transferred to other work. Another watchman was appointed to this Channal.

The late watchman will now be dismissed altogether from Municipal work.

The channal bank ^{on} bank on one side has been improved already, and that on the other side will be repaired soon.

Para 5 e. Chakkala tank in gajamaitipoor will be filled up, by earth taken from the bund between Annamma's and Vallagappa's tanks, and from their beds so as to convert the two into one.

The tank (152 by 53 yards) when filled up, will be utilized for a market: and the cost will be met by the sale of the present market, which is very narrow and will not satisfy the present requirements of the town.

Para 7a and 7b. The council has already sanctioned the erection of stalls for meat market. The plan and Estimate will be submitted to Sanitary Board in a few days.

Para 10.

The out houses referred to will be repaired in the current year.

Para 9 b.

A new site has been selected for a Mahomedan burial ground as the present sites are too close and objectionable. Application will be made to Collector, for acquiring this site.

^{note - a sketch of the site is attached to the survey. Commenced today for approval}

Para 2 of G.O.

^{*} note - About Rs 67,000 have already been subscribed, and Rs 1,09,210, required to be collected locally.

les 286.

The Council is earnestly endeavouring to introduce the Sanitary Engineer's water Scheme, by collecting about a fourth of the total cost by local Subscriptions. This forms the subject of a separate report.

Para 3 of G.O.

Special attention will be paid to the subject.
