order.

It does not appear that the provisions of rules 19, 20 & 21 of the election rules have been complied with in this case, and until this was done, Messrs T. M. Subramanija Pillai should not have been considered to have been elected under rule 22 (b). The Chairman's action in having forestalled the result of the election in this manner was very irregular. He should now arrange again for an election, in the conduct of which the rules on the subject should be strictly adhered to.

The usual notification will be published in the gazette

30/7/95

Note: I do not follow the office's order.
The Chairman says he gave notice, apparently under rule 7, & only one nomination came in. Compliance with rules 19, 20 & 21 seems therefore hardly necessary, especially as the nominated candidate had been a Councillor before, & was therefore qualified.
No one has objected.
The Chairman is C. Trichinopoly through the collector.
