SIR,

In reply to your memorandum No 897 dated 1st July 1895, I have the honor to inform you that the Hospital Assistant who performed Cholera duties had to be entertained not as an additional hand to the Existing staff, but as a substitute for the Senior Hospital Assistant who was on privilege leave at the time that Cholera broke out. I thought therefore there was no need for including the Hospital assistant in the Proposition statement then submitted. I have since then found that the pay of this Hospital Assistant has also been reckoned as Cholera Expenditure.

I may mention by the way that it it is not usual for this Council to engage the Services of a special Cholera Hospital Assistant as the Junior Hospital Assistant in charge of the Main Hospital was usually entrusted with this duty.

I now submit a proposition statement in which the Hospital assistant, the maistries and the toties are included with the periods for which they were maintained. Requesting that Government will be pleased to sanction the Expenditure,

SIR,

In reply to Government Memorandum No. 632 dated 6th May 1895, I have the honor to place the following information before Government.

Cholera broke out towards the close of December in Pennamandy, a village within Municipal limits on the Northern side of the Cauvery. It thence extended to the right bank of the Cauvery and ultimately to every part of the town. Two sets of Cholera staff had to be employed to prevent its havoc. One set was engaged for the Northern parts; this consisted of a Maistry who had no knowledge of medicine, but who under the supervision of the Civil Apothecary and the Special Cholera Hospital

Assistant

Assistant was a Stationary Officer distributing Cholera pills & drinking water, disinfecting powders &c as first aids to people going to him for medicines, and reporting the same to the Hospital Assistant on Cholera duty or Sending a report to the nearest hospital where other medicines were given to those applying for them. The peon was to enter the houses of patients (Caste) Collect the Clothing &c of Cholera Stricken patients and give them to the toti whose business it was to have the Clothes, bedding &c properly Cleaned & disinfected or burnt as the Case may be. He was also to remove the excreta after disinfection to a distant place, burn it under the immediate Supervision of the peon whose duty it was to see that this important work was properly done and report the same to the maistry. The toti then appointed was only an additional hand with others already on the toti Staff of this Municipality. It was not therefore a Case of one maistry and one peon Superintending the work of a

Single

Single toti; the work of Several toties had to be watched by the peon who on account of his Caste was allowed ingress into all houses to Collect the Clothing, bedding &c of the patients as already Stated. In the Second Case, the maistry was a retired Compounder who understood the administering of medicines and making of prescriptions &c given by the Hospital Assistant on Cholera duty to patients and whose Services were on that account Simply invaluable. All the observations made with regard to the Staff on the northern Side of the Cauvery apply with greater force to the Staff on the Southern Side as it had to do work over a much larger area. The existing Staff of municipal toties rendered assistance here also to the additional toti and required looking after. Thus it will be seen that this Council incurred no expense that Could possibly have been avoided.

If the instructions of the Sanitary Commissioner had been observed literally

Assistant was a Stationary Officer the expenditure would have been ten times as great as that which has now been incurred. In these circumstances, I have the honor to request that Government will be pleased to sanction the expenditure that has been incurred.

Sir,

I have the honor to request that Government will be pleased to sanction the accompanying proposition statement of Cholera Establishment entertained by this Municipality towards the close of December 1894 and continued till the 31st January 1895 when the epidemic appeared to have left the place. But about the middle of the current month it broke out again and necessitated the entertainment of a similar staff which still continues to work though the virulence of the disease has considerably abated. The resolutions of the Council which accompany this communication sanction only two amounts namely Rs 40. 13. 6 and Rs 25. 0. 0. As it is difficult to prophecy with any degree of accuracy the length of time for which the Establishment has prayed for may continue, I request that I may be allowed to retain the Establishment till the end of the official year. I may also mention the fact that no Cholera Establishment was entertained during February last.
