Sir,

Purnamaiyar of Munnirpallam village, Tinnevelly Taluk was trained in the Board Training School during 1889-90. He was allowed a monthly stipend of Rs 5. He left the school before the completion of the course, but did not refund the amount of stipends drawn by him, Rs 8-8-9, according to the terms of the agreement entered into by him. A suit was filed against him and a decree obtained for Rs 20-7-0.

The Tahsildar of Tinnevely who was requested to find means for the recovery of the amount of decree reported that the defaulter possessed no property. The District Board resolved by their resolution no 12 dated 30th October last, copy enclosed, that the amount may be written off the accounts as irrecoverable. I have the honor to solicit the sanction of Government for writing the amount off the accounts.

I have the honor to be
