For orders

The information required by the C.S. on the first of the above currents has been furnished in the second. Orders have been passed as to whether the sale may be sanctioned, or the encroachment should be removed.

The encroachment appears to be harmless as far as the street is concerned: it is however recent and the tendency of order of late has been to remove encroachments.

17/12/94

This encroachment apparently does no harm but being the house in the line with others. It may be removed, as a special case.

19/12/94

To the President, District Board, North Arcot.

Order. 12/12/94

The sale of the land referred to is Sanctioned as a special case, as the building does not appear to be in the way of the street.

It is however the duty of all local boards to refer to the utmost the prudent tendency to encroach upon streets in houses to the detriment of the community in general.
This order should not be construed as a precedent for permitting the continuance of the practice.

For orders

The width of the street at the spot where it has been encroached upon appears to be 24', excluding the encroached portion, and 30' at the north -ern end, but it is not stated whether the encroachment does or does not interfere with traffic, although it may be presumed that it does not.
It is ^{also} not stated when the encroach-ment was made. It is therefore for consideration whether its immediate removal should be ordered as was done in the case dealt with
