ORDER. 2-8-95 No. 1360 duis

As Shain Abdulla has already been employed from 1st April 1892, his re-employment from that date will be sanctioned in order that he may be able to draw his pension. The Govt. however consider that it should be possible to procure a more efficient watchman than a pensioner of sixty seven years of age, & he should be at once ^{removed from} relieved of the post & ~~re-employed~~. Some other person appointed.

SUBJECT.

Subj: letter from the P.T.B Trickkoyilur reg. 2 to obtain the sanction of Govt for the re-employment of Shaikh Abdullah a retired police constable at Kallakurichi on a salary of Rs 3 per mensem as tank watchman with retrospective effect from 1st April/93

(with order)

Note: None but a pensioner can be got for the place on a salary of Rs 3. I do dated 1-7-95 No. 1149 L. Sanction was refused for the reemployment of a pensioner as a peon on the Kallakurichi from Union, but for a precedent please see No. 20-6-95 No. 1059 L.

This was perhaps, not quite a parallel case. A peon should be strong and active, & a younger man would be likely to do better than a pensioner. In the present instance a man who is trust worthy & likely to be obedient is wanted on a very low salary, and it is submitted that no ordinary candidate would be likely to do better than the pensioner.

may now be obtained to ~~him~~ re-employment with retrospective effect from 1st April 1893.

Under the circumstances I request that you will be pleased to address the Government on the subject. The whole of the town of Ballakurichi depends for its supply of drinking water on the single pond in the place and it requires a man of some experience in managing crowds ^{and} to keep out those who are always ready to pollute the water. Shakk Abdulla is a retired Police officer and it has been thought best to employ him for the purpose of watching the pond.

I have the honor to be Sir
Your most obedient servant.

amount of his monthly pension which falls under 'Retiring pension' is Rs 3-4-and his pay as tank watchman is Rs 3-The sanction of Government has not been obtained to the employment of the pensioner in the Local Fund Service as required under ^{Art.} 516 of the Civil Service Regulations. No objection has hitherto been raised by the Account Department.
The Tahsildar of Kallakurichi now reports that the Deputy Collector in charge of the Treasury objects to the payment of the pension to the tank man and has issued orders for the recovery from the pensioner the whole amount of pension already drawn by him since the date of his appointment as tank watchman.
The Tahsildar therefore requests the sanction of Government.
