To

The Chairman

Municipal Council

Trichinopoly

The application of Messrs V. S. Vannis and Brothers, Druggists and Medicated Water Manufacturers, Palacurai Trichinopoly.

Honoured Sir

1. We beg to represent for your information, that all medicines from the Municipal Dispensary is generally served out to Poor Patients free, as well as to known and wealthy Patients free, but to unknown Patients at Half Price.
 2. It is Just and Charitable to give free to the Poor Patients for which the Municipal Dispensary is established, but it is not Just and Charitable to allow free to the wealthy and known Patients and Half price to others.
 3. If there is no Druggist shop in this town there will be no question as there is one the wealthy Patients can be directed to make purchase out, and not in the Municipal Dispensary, when there will be a great saving to the Municipal Dispensary than at present.
- Therefore we shall highly feel obliged by your kindly Ruling that all wealthy Patients do procure their requirements in a Druggist shop as per Prescription of the Municipal Hospital, and solicit your early Orders.
- We beg to remain res
