To

His Excellency

Local & District Deputy Secretary
CURRENT No. 1044/M

The Government of Madras

From

Some of the Magistrates of Greerangam

May it please your Excellency
For the ensuing election that is to take place on the 26th of August in the Municipality of Greerangam District Trichinopoly the Chairman first published list of persons qualified to be Councillors and voters on the 9th of May 1895, giving three weeks time for objections etc.

2. Accordingly within the time fixed, a petition was submitted to the Chairman by about 20 persons, three of whom qualified to be Councillors and almost all the others to be voters; pointing out the Government order dated 22-10-94 No 1526 M. in that the names of the Honorary Magistrates should not get a place in the list of those qualified to be Councillors

3. With this petition there were a few other petitions objecting the entry of some names in the lists. A name of a person who is not even qualified to be a voter is taken in that of those qualified to be Councillors, for which an objection petition was put in; as for one Anantha Chariat of the West Chitra Street concerns with this

4. A name of a person who died a month back is taken in the voters list, which must have been brought to the Municipal

Death Register. Puthupalayam Ramaswami Aiyangar of North Chitra street.

5. By looking at the fresh lists published on the 5th of August 1895 only fresh in name, it is understood that the above-mentioned petitions were not ~~acted~~ for by the Muni-
-pal Chairman

6. The present list is quite against election
-rules and Government orders

7. We hear that M. R. By Hatha Peruma Pillay Anusgal of Jambhakeswararam is recommen-ded by the District Collector of Trichinopoly to your Excellency for the Bench-Magistrate
-ship of Srirangam

8. We beg to submit to your Excellency that he tries in the present Municipal Election and is sure to succeed as his name is the only name in the nomination list of the third ward

9. If your Excellency appoints him as a Bench--Magistrate now, the Gentleman should possess the two appointments (Bench-Magistrate and Municipal Councillor). This, we think, is against the G. O. dated 22nd October 94 No 1526 M. This Under the above circumstances we request your Excellency to pass orders to the Municipal Chairman, to fresh the list again according to the rules and considering of the petitions, and to kindly defer appointing the above Gentleman as a Bench-Magistrate to see whether his possessing the two appointments is not against the Government Orders.

But please see
G.O. 12-11-94
No 1526 M.

This the Govt. Councillor according Rule 11, note are prepared by the Council are complete

This is unnecessary
