Obtained

Sir,

We have the honor to acknowledge and thank you for your No 1362 of 19th instant from which we note that the Consulting Engineer for Railways now holds the position of Joint Secretary to Government in the Railway branch of the Public Works Department - It does not however deal with the chief points of our enquiry viz whether he is thereby qualified to deal with matters purely electrical instead of the Telegraph Department with which we have hitherto been corresponding with a great saving of time and friction.

Requesting the favour of a reply to this particular point

We have the honor to be

Yours Most Obedient Servant
