To,

The Chief Secretary to Government
Local and Municipal Dep^t
Madras.

(through the President, District Board, Tinnevely)

Sir,

I have the honor to state that additional rooms were constructed in the Seppakulam Chattram at Srivairkumtham during the last official year, a sum of Rs 900 being allotted for the purpose in Taluk Board's Resolutions No. $\frac{1}{2-7-94}$ and $\frac{5}{1-10-94}$. In the course of actual construction, it was found necessary that the two pieces of land (marked B & C. in the plan enclosed and measuring 70 and 110 Square feet respectively) adjoining the Chattram and belonging to certain private individuals, should be acquired. The owners of these lands agreed to part with them and receive in exchange the narrow strip of land (marked A in the plan and and measuring $189\frac{3}{4}$ Sq. feet) also adjoining the Chattram and belonging to it. This strip of land lay waste and was in no way useful to the Chattram; and the Tahsildar of Jenkarai recommended that it might be exchanged for the pieces of land referred to above which were necessarily required for the Chattram. The Taluk Board in their Resolution No. 24 D/21-1-95 (Copy enclosed) approved the recommendation of the Tahsildar.

2. I therefore request that you will be good enough to obtain the sanction of Government for the exchange of the lands proposed as required in G. O. No. 858 L. dated 16th April 1889.

I have &c. &c.
