SIR,

578 Lms
20.3.95

In Continuation of this office Ref on Cur no 3263 DB regarding the loss of Rs 200 by P. Peshiah, a peon attached to the office of the Assistant Engineer, Rajahmundry sub division, I have the honor to state that the District Engineer has reported that there are no means of recovering the money lost from the peon in question except by monthly instalments of Rs 2 to be deducted from his pay.
The Tahsildar of Rajahmundry has also reported that there is no possibility of recovering the money otherwise, as the peon possesses no property, moveable or immovable (vide Copy of the report from the Tahsildar of Rajahmundry called for by the District Board in its resolution no 2 dated 25.5.95).

2 The inquiries made by the Police having disclosed that the man actually committed a fraud upon his employers, though the evidence was not sufficient to secure his conviction in a Criminal Court, he could no longer be retained in the service of the District Board. He was accordingly dismissed and it has been resolved by the Board that the amount should be written off. (Vide Copy of its resolution no 22 dated 13-7-95)

3 I have therefore the honor to request that Government will be pleased to accord its sanction to the said amount being written off the accounts as irrecoverable.

I have the honor to be
Sir

Yours most obedient servant
Edw. A. Brodie
