From

H. A. Stuart, Esquire, C.S., President of the District Board,

Chingleput.

To

The Chief Secretary to Government, Local and Municipal Department, Madras.

Sir,

Adverting to para 2 of G.O. dated 10th December last No. 2571 L. Mis., I have the honour to enclose a copy of the resolution of the Chingleput Taluk Board dated 6th October last in which it resolved to purchase copies of the Tamil translation of Dr King's Simple Sanitary Rules and to request that Government will be pleased to sanction the same.

2. Dr King's publication contains a set of rules to be observed on the occasions of cholera epidemic and it is considered desirable desirable to supply the Chairmen of Unions, Village Muncips, sanitary overseers and others, with copies as the directions given in the book would be useful to them. Such a publication was not anticipated at the budget time and hence no provision - could be made for it. I may add that cholera is prevalent at the present time in three taluks.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

H. A. Stuart

President,

District Board.
