THRO.

The Divisional Officer.

Sir,

I have the honor to bring to the notice of Government that a Municipal Case, for non-payment of certain Tax, has been pending before the Stationary Sub Magistrate of this place and the Defendant contends that the prosecution under sec 111 of Act IV of 1884 is illegal as provisions of sec 103 were not adhered to before prosecution.

2

His moveable property was not distrained as his house has never been taxed since the creation of the Municipality on the supposition that it is situated out of Municipal limits, though the Defendant now says that it is within the Municipal limits.

3

I therefore request that the Government be pleased to favor me, at an early date,

I have the honor to be

Will be pleased to favour me, at an early opportunity.
