Memo 807

From a report received from the Inspector General of Police it appears that the main streets in the village of Kalugumalai, have been held by the High Court on an appeal from the Subordinate Judge's Court and the District Munsiff's Court to be private streets, under the control of the Devasthanam authorities. The President District Board, Tinnevely, is requested to state ^{report} whether this was the case and if so whether these streets are maintained by the Devasthanam authorities in question.
