From,

The Secretary to Government.

To,

The Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras

Sir,

In reply to your letter N^o 1291-m, mis: dated 9th August 1895, I am directed to inform you that the tramway lotteries are still in existence. The orders sanctioning them were issued before the issue of the circular of the Government of India N^o 329 dated 1st November 1877, and it has not therefore been considered necessary to apply for the confirmation of the Government of India.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

your most obedient servant,

J. De Silva

Secretary to Government.

Letter. 10-10-95. No. 1629 mms
To the Secretary to the Govt of India, Home Department.

Sir,

I am directed to submit the following case for the orders of the Government of India.

2. The agents of the Elec-tric Tramways Company, Madras, have requested this Government to sanction the introduction of a system of monthly money prizes on the tramways under their control. Copy of a Communication received from them describing the mode of procedure pro-posed to be adopted is enclosed. The System as sketched by them is as follows:

to be intended to act as a check upon their conductors, but would apparently constitute a lottery, and as such be contrary to the principle laid down in the Home Department Resolution, dated 1st November 1877, No 329. This Government, however, considers that though technically a lottery, it is not likely to be injurious to the public morals and may therefore be sanctioned.

3. It has been ascertained by a reference to the Government of Bombay that a similar system has been in force on the tramways in Bombay since the year 1874.
