TO

The Chief Secretary to Government,

Local and Municipal Department,

Madras.

SIR,

Through the Resident
District Board, Godavari.

I have the honor to state that one Sheikh Burham Sahib Police Pensioner No. 15983 was appointed as bill-collector in the Attali Union on a pay of rupees five per mensem on 2-5-1891 by Mr. Wetherill when Resident of the Ellore Taluk Board.
The Sanction of Government for his re-employment was not obtained as required by Article 576 of the Civil Service Regulations. The bill collector's pay was raised from rupees 5 to rupees 6 from 1-4-1894, the pay of bill-collectors of the other unions being similarly increased.

Copy of pension - Bill-collector
No. 15983
1-4-1894

An officer who has obtained a pension cannot be reemployed in the General Service unless he has paid from an independent source, except something public money, and with the express sanction of the Govt of India in the Finance Department, or of pensioners in a District Change, of the Local Govt. If so reemployed he is permitted to draw pension in addition to full pay.

2/10/1895

2. In October 1894, the Treasury Du Collector raised objection to the bill Collector drawing pay as such in addition to his pension and the payment of pension has been withheld since that time.
Sheik Burhan Sahet is now drawing only Rs 6 per mensem, the pay as bill-Collector. On a reference being made by the Treasury Du Collector Godawari, the Accountant-General has ordered that the amount of pension irregularly drawn from 2-5-91 to September 1894 viz, Rs 150 must be recovered from the pensioner unless Government sanctions his reemployment under article 576 of the Civil Service Regulations. The pensioner draws very small pay and it would be a great hardship for him to have to refund the amount of Rs 150 drawn as pension since he was employed as bill Collector.

3. The pensioner is reported to have done his work satisfactorily, and as the collection of house-tax the tax in this Union in 1895-96

Rs 1200

In any case he has to furnish in a large union like Attili is a somewhat responsible duty, it is advisable that a man of good character should be employed.

I therefore request that you will kindly obtain the sanction of Government for his re-employment with retrospective effect from 2-5-1891 to enable him to draw his pension as usual.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant

Order 67-95 No. 1628

As Shaikh Burhan has already been employed from 2nd May 1891, his re-employment from that date will be sanctioned in order that he may be able to draw his pension.
The Government, however, considers that it should be possible to procure a more efficient bill collector than a pensioner of fifty years of age and he should be at once removed from the post and some other person appointed.

Note Please see the note & orders G.O. of 1-7-95 No. 4492 and 2-8-95 No. 1362.
On enquiry in the Accountant-General's office it appears that Shaikh Burhan retired in 1889 on a retiring pension of Rs 3-12-0 and that he is now fifty years old. A bill collector has plenty of outdoor work to do and should be strong & active and a younger man would be likely to do better than a pensioner. A trusteeship is no doubt necessary but in any case the bill collector has to furnish a security of Rs 20 under No. 21 of the rules approved in G.O. dated 13-3-90 No. 6232.
