Statement of Nanjappa gounden son of Ráma gounden of Coimbatore on 11th June 1895 before the Tahsildar of Coimbatore

The Coimbatore Municipality want 3·74 acres of field No 49 assessed at Rs 5-10-" and 4·49 acres of field No 50, assessed at Rs 6-14-" in my enjoyment in the village of Coimbatore for a night soil depôt. I pay the assessment of the fields and am enjoying them I shall make over possession of the fields to Government if I am paid a Compensation of Rs 150 per acre. I am not willing to part with them for any Compensation less than that rate. The fields fell to my share in the partition of my family property. There is a well well out of repair in field No. 50. If the well is repaired, the field will fetch Rs 400. If the whole of the two fields are taken up, I am willing to part with them. If not, I am not willing, as the value of the other portion of my fields will be diminished

W 26-7-95

Note

At present the approval of the District Medical officer is obtained to sites selected for burial & burning grounds and for hospital buildings. It would be better to get his approval in this case also as otherwise considerable difficulty would be caused by the council selecting an unsuitable site.
