SIR,

With reference to clause (2) of the official memorandum dated 18th September 1895. In 1885, I have the honor to submit that the average attendance at the Insalmedan primary school required to be supplied in column 3 of statement I A is 29 and to explain with reference to clause (2) thereof that the actual number of facka latrines on the 31st March 1895 was only 29 and that the number given in the Civil Apothecary's report was inadvertently wrong, as the Civil Apothecary has been requested to enter the correct figure in his office copy of the report.

*It is noted for your information
I have the honor to be
Yours faithfully
