19-8-95

Only 130 copies of the Army Gen.
Comm^{rs} memorandum were rec^d from the S. of State. As the memo. ~~was~~ ^{has} not hitherto ^{been} placed on the Ed. Table, there were enough copies to go round to the officers to whom it is usually distributed, it was not separately printed here but copies were sent with G.O. 1487 L.
19-8-95

All but 15²⁴ were used up in this way. Some of these are wanted for reference in the office. There are thirty editors.

As the memo. is to be put on the E.T. it will therefore require to be printed now.

Orders are solicited as to whether it is necessary to do this.

W.C. 10-2-95 The Gen. marked for he printed. It is of general interest

It might be that next time a sufficient number of copies may be sent in order to save the trouble & expense of reprinting

Wes: I don't understand the pencil note. What on earth was the use of distributing 670 copies of the G.O.
when there were only ¹⁵ ~~100~~ copies of the memo. available for distribution? H. 13995

In the case of printed orders of Govt, the officers to whom they are addressed are supplied with a signed copy and a number of spare copies according to the needs of each officer. Presidents of district boards are furnished with 388 copies, Chairmen of Municipal councils with 118 copies and Collectors with 77 copies, as shewn in the Distribution lists put up, and 87 copies are required for distribution to Edit-ors, and office use, &c. Thus 670 copies of G.O., dated 19 August 1895, No 14872, were printed and distributed as shewn in the latter part of the pencil note. As, however, only 115 copies of the Memorandum were available, the same not having been reprinted on the score of expense, a copy of it was stitched with each of the signed copies of the G.O. and despatched to the officers concerned, while the spare copies were forwarded without the Memorandum as usual in previous years. The copies of this G.O. without the memorandum, however, are of no use and it was therefore proposed to ask for 670 copies of the Memorandum.
