Subsequently, I obtained an assignment of the said Raghava Variar's rights. I have effected no Kuzhikkoor in the two portions of the Paramba above mentioned. The existing Kuzhikkoor belongs to Biathumma. The Northern portion of the Valia Kothika is in my possession. It is also covered by the demise above mentioned. It contains a Palmyra seedling planted by me. I am willing to assign my rights in respect of Valia Kothika Kekkha Khandam, the adjoining portion of Pulparamba on the east and Valia Kothika Vatakka Khandam, required by the Taluk Board, and measuring 30x26 and 20x15 Kols. When I came in possession of this area, it was lying waste covered with jungle. It is I who cleared the site. I must get a compensation of Rs 50 for the area above mentioned, now required by the Taluk Board. I ask for this amount as compensation for the labour and expense entailed on me in clearing the said site.

Statement of Thekka Halakkal Pokku of ^{Egdavoor} ~~Edavoor~~ Smashom and Deshom, given before the 3rd Revenue Inspector on the 11th January 1894.

I hold on Kanom certain parambas on the northern side of the Hospital (Tamaracheri).

The Lanom demise was obtained from the Kottayath Raja. The demise was obtained, I think, in 1061 A.D. The western portion of the paramba forming the Kudiyiruppu of Appakootil Abdulla is known as Valia Motika and the eastern portion as Pulparamba. These 2 portions were demised by me to one Kulangarakkandi Moidin in 1062 A.D. on a Lanom of Rs 7-8-0. On the death of this Moidin, the property passed to the possession of his widow Pothamma, who assigned it to her daughter Pithamma, the present occupant. Accordingly, both the said portions are now in

The possession of the said Biathumma. The jenmi of this property is Kekkha Kovilagath Raja of Kottayam. These, as well as certain adjoining parambas on the North and East, have been secured by me from the Kovilagom on a Kanom of 100 fanams. Although the deed does not specify the period of Kanom, I understand that it runs for 12 years according to the local usage. I shall produce the Kanom deed. All these parambas are covered by the Moalecharithu granted in favour of myself and one Varigath Raghava Variar of Beypore.
