Out of the fields registered in my name 300 cents of field No. 301 G, 13 cents of field No. 300 B, and 24 cents of field No. 300 H have been taken up for the Vemulakoti Road and further extents of 26 and 4 cents in the last two fields respectively have been rendered useless for cultivation by this action. A total extent of 97 cents has thus been lost to me. I agree to accept a compensation of Rs 97 for this at the rate of Rs 100 per acre. For the irrigation of the remaining portion of 44 cents of field No. 301 G and of 32 cents of field No. 301 F which adjoins the former on the South, you and the Dy Collector have told me that you will have a channel dug across the road, the charges therefor being met every year by Government, and you will

12 cents of field No. 300 G for the Vemulakota Road, 1 cent for the stacking of earth and 11 cents of field No. 300 F which stands entered in the joint names of myself and my brother, for the said road, or a total of 24 cents have been taken up by Government for which I agree to accept a compensation of Rs 24 at Rs 100 per acre and a further compensation of 44 at Rs 80 per acre for the loss sustained from want of water for irrigating the remaining portions of the fields, or Rs 68 in the aggregate. In this matter there is no objection.

2. For the same road 9 cents of field No. 301 D registered in my brother Kotayya's name was already taken. For this I agree to take compensation at Rs 100 per acre. For the irrigation of the remaining portion of the field i.e. 42 cents the Dy Collector and yourself have said that that you will have a channel dug across the road the charges therefor being met every year by Government. I agree to it. If the flow of water through this channel is obstructed, I request that compensation be given at Rs 80 per acre for the loss sustained as was done with regard to field No. 300 I.

Sir,

I have the honor to submit a draft notification under Section 6 of Act I of 1894 in respect of a piece of land measuring 2 acres taken up in Markapur village for the construction of a road from Markapur to Vemulakota. The Local ~~Fund~~ Board took up this land during the famine of 1891 without applying for its acquisition. The owners of the land claimed compensation in last November. Hence this application for formal acquisition.

2. The statements of the owners with true translations are herewith forwarded.
