265. Read G.O., dated 8th January 1895 No 14 M. Mis., directing the Municipal Council to revise the proposed scale of fees for private scavenging so that the service may be self supporting.

Resolution:— The scavenging system was increased from 87 to 535 houses within a short period of four months after much persuasion by the Councillors and with distinct understanding that the rates will not be increased for some time to come. If before the system is popularised, the present rates of fees be enhanced, there will be much therefore thinks it inadvisable to raise them so soon, but hopes to do so on 12th April 1896.
