4. That his abject condition, the hardships that crowd into his life the exacting and inadequately remunerated duties he has to perform, have all more than once prompted the Engineer to plead with the District Board for some increase to the salaries of your memorialist and his office comrades but Government, unfortunately, declined to extend the clemency sought for. That such increase would not be at conflict with the policy of financial reform so firmly set down by Government, will be quite clear from the fact that in Malabar the scale of clerical staff is comparatively lower than that of other Districts viz. Godaveri, Krishna, and North Arcot.

5. That from the above circumstances, your Excellency will be graciously pleased to see that not only is it improbable that memorialist will reap any fruit from the pensionary contribution now taken from him, but he is also, too indigent to afford paying the amount without painful sacrifice. He therefore humbly implores your Excellency to have pity on him and either order the paid up amount to be refunded to him or commuted into a Provident Fund, which would be of some help to him in the future that he must face.

Memorialist begs leave to remain,
May it please your Excellency,

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY,

That your Excellency's humble memorialist respectfully submits the following grievances for just and favourable consideration.

2. That, G. O. dated 19th August 93 No. 1842 L makes pensionable the services of Malabar Local Fund servants, on condition they contribute a tenth of salary towards pension, and memorialist has been subjected to the operation of the Order. That had he known, as he now knows that the Order has only an optional force, he would assuredly have declined a burden, which, can be of no prospective, or other advantage to him. For, while the order is intended (1) to give Local Fund servants the blessing of a retiring pension and (2) to qualify them for appointments paid out of provincial funds, it will be mournfully apparent from the following circumstances that none of these benefits can accrue to your Excellency's unhappy memorialist.

(a) That he has passed middle age, and since the date of pension counts, not from the date of original appointment, but from that of pensionary contribution, it is almost physically impossible that memorialist will live to draw any sort of pension.

(b) That he has 11 years service but being an unpassed candidate, the gates of the Provincial service are effectually barred against him.

(c) That should he, by some rare and happy combination of circumstances, find promotion in other Districts, he would have to forfeit the pensionary amount contributed here, as totally different arrangements (e. g. Provident Funds) prevail outside Malabar.

3. That such being the state of affairs, it is palpable that your Excellency's humble memorialist is only forfeiting a tenth of his salary in what bids fair to be an unprofitable investment. Nor can he endure the strain of this monthly demand, for he is a very poor man drawing a meagre salary (Rs 25 monthly) having a large family to feed and bring up, having no other sources of livelihood and living in a District which has during the last decade or two turned out to be notoriously expensive.

4. That his abject condition, the hardships that crowd into his life the exacting and inadequately remunerated duties he has to perform, have all more than once prompted the Engineer to plead with the District Board for some increase to the salaries of your memorialist and his office comrades but Government, unfortunately, declined to extend the clemency sought for. That such increase would not be at conflict with the policy of financial reform so firmly set down by Government, will be quite clear from the fact that in Malabar the scale of clerical staff is comparatively lower than that of other Districts viz. Godaveri, Krishna, and North Arcot.

5. That from the above circumstances, your Excellency will be graciously pleased to see that not only is it improbable that memorialist will reap any fruit from the pensionary contribution now taken from him, but he is also, too indigent to afford paying the amount without painful sacrifice. He therefore humbly implores your Excellency to have pity on him and either order the paid up amount to be refunded to him or commuted into a Provident Fund, which would be of some help to him in the future that he must face.

Memorialist begs leave to remain,

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY,

That your Excellency's humble memorialist respectfully submits the following grievances for just and favourable consideration.

2. That, G. O. dated 19th August 93 No. 1842 L makes pensionable the services of Malabar Local Fund servants, on condition they contribute a tenth of salary towards pension, and memorialist has been subjected to the operation of the Order. That had he known, as he now knows that the Order has only an optional force, he would assuredly have declined a burden, which, can be of no prospective, or other advantage to him. For, while the order is intended (1) to give Local Fund servants the blessing of a retiring pension and (2) to qualify them for appointments paid out of provincial funds, it will be mornfully apparent from the following circumstances that none of these benefits can accrue to your Excellency's unhappy memorialist.

(a) That he has passed middle age, and since the date of pension counts, not from the date of original appointment, but from that of pensionary contribution, it is almost physically impossible that memorialist will live to draw any sort of pension.

(b) That he has 15 years service but being an unpassed candidate, the gates of the Provincial service are effectually barred against him.

(c) That should he, by some rare and happy combination of circumstances, find promotion in other Districts, he would have to forfeit the pensionary amount contributed here, as totally different arrangements, (e. g. Provident Funds) prevail outside Malabar.

3. That such being the state of affairs, it is palpable that your Excellency's humble memorialist is only forfeiting a tenth of his salary in what bids fair to be an unprofitable investment. Nor can he endure the strain of this monthly demand, for he is a very poor man drawing a meagre salary (Rs 20 monthly) having a large family to feed and bring up, having no other sources of livelihood and living in a District which has during the last decade or two turned out to be notoriously expensive.

4. That his abject condition, the hardships that crowd into his life the exacting and inadequately remunerated duties he has to perform, have all more than once prompted the Engineer to plead with the District Board for some increase to the salaries of your memorialist and his office comrades but Government, unfortunately, declined to extend the clemency sought for. That such increase would not be at conflict with the policy of financial reform so firmly set down by Government, will be quite clear from the fact that in Malabar the scale of clerical staff is comparatively lower than that of other Districts viz. Godaveri, Krishna, and North Arcot.

5. That from the above circumstances, your Excellency will be graciously pleased to see that not only is it improbable that memorialist will reap any fruit from the pensionary contribution now taken from him, but he is also, too indigent to afford paying the amount without painful sacrifice. He therefore humbly implores your Excellency to have pity on him and either order the paid up amount to be refunded to him or commuted into a Provident Fund, which would be of some help to him in the future that he must face.

May it please your Excellency,

That your Excellency's humble memorialist respectfully submits the following grievances for just and favourable consideration.

2. That, G. O. dated 19th August 93 No. 1842 L makes pensionable the services of Malabar Local Fund servants, on condition they contribute a tenth of salary towards pension, and memorialist has been subjected to the operation of the Order. That had he known, as he now knows that the Order has only an optional force, he would assuredly have declined a burden, which, can be of no prospective, or other advantage to him. For, while the order is intended (1) to give Local Fund servants the blessing of a retiring pension and (2) to qualify them for appointments paid out of provincial funds, it will be mornfully apparent from the following circumstances that none of these benefits can accrue to your Excellency's unhappy memorialist.

(a) That he has passed middle age, and since the date of pension counts, not from the date of original appointment, but from that of pensionary contribution, it is almost physically impossible that memorialist will live to draw any sort of pension.

(b) That he has 4 years service but being an unpassed candidate, the gates of the Provincial service are effectually barred against him.

(c) That should he, by some rare and happy combination of circumstances, find promotion in other Districts, he would have to forfeit the pensionary amount contributed here, as totally different arrangements (e. g. Provident Funds) prevail outside Malabar.

3. That such being the state of affairs, it is palpable that your Excellency's humble memorialist is only forfeiting a tenth of his salary in what bids fair to be an unprofitable investment. Nor can he endure the strain of this monthly demand, for he is a very poor man drawing a meagre salary (Rs 12 monthly) having a large family to feed and bring up, having no other sources of livelihood and living in a District which has during the last decade or two turned out to be notoriously expensive.

(c) That should he, by some rare and happy combination of circumstances, find promotion in other Districts, he would have to forfeit the pensionary amount contributed here, as totally different arrangements (e. g. Provident Funds) prevail outside Malabar.

3. That such being the state of affairs, it is palpable that your Excellency's humble memorialist is only forfeiting a tenth of his salary in what bids fair to be an unprofitable investment. Nor can he endure the strain of this monthly demand, for he is a very poor man drawing a meagre salary (Rs 10 monthly) having a large family to feed and bring up, having no other sources of livelihood and living in a District which has during the last decade or two turned out to be notoriously expensive.

4. That his abject condition, the hardships that crowd into his life the exacting and inadequately remunerated duties he has to perform, have all more than once prompted the Engineer to plead with the District Board for some increase to the salaries of your memorialist and his office comrades but Government, unfortunately, declined to extend the clemency sought for. That such increase would not be at conflict with the policy of financial reform so firmly set down by Government, will be quite clear from the fact that in Malabar the scale of clerical staff is comparatively lower than that of other Districts viz. Godaveri, Krishna, and North Arcot.

5. That from the above circumstances, your Excellency will be graciously pleased to see that not only is it improbable that memorialist will reap any fruit from the pensionary contribution now taken from him, but he is also, too indigent to afford paying the amount without painful sacrifice. He therefore humbly implores your Excellency to have pity on him and either order the paid up amount to be refunded to him or commuted into a Provident Fund, which would be of some help to him in the future that he must face.

Memorialist begs leave to remain,
May it please your Excellency,
Your Excellency's most obedient and humble Servant.

Department, Malabar.

May it please your Excellency,

That your Excellency's humble memorialist respectfully submits the following grievances for just and favourable consideration.

2. That, G. O. dated 19th August 93 No. 1842 L makes pensionable the services of Malabar Local Fund servants, on condition they contribute a tenth of salary towards pension, and memorialist has been subjected to the operation of the Order. That had he known, as he now knows that the Order has only an optional force, he would assuredly have declined a burden, which, can be of no prospective, or other advantage to him. For, while the order is intended (1) to give Local Fund servants the blessing of a retiring pension and (2) to qualify them for appointments paid out of provincial funds, it will be mornfully apparent from the following circumstances that none of these benefits can accrue to your Excellency's unhappy memorialist.

also the Dt. Bd. is to contribute.

(a) That he has passed middle age, and since the date of pension counts, not from the date of original appointment, but from that of pensionary contribution, it is almost physically impossible that memorialist will live to draw any sort of pension.

(b) That he has 12 years service but being an unpassed candidate, the gates of the Provincial service are effectually barred against him.

(c) That should he, by some rare and happy combination of circumstances, find promotion in other Districts, he would have to forfeit the pensionary amount contributed here, as totally different arrangements (e. g. Provident Funds) prevail outside Malabar.

3. That such being the state of affairs, it is palpable that your Excellency's humble memorialist is only forfeiting a tenth of his salary in what bids fair to be an unprofitable investment. Nor can he endure the strain of this monthly demand, for he is a very poor man drawing a meagre salary (Rs 30 monthly) having a large family to feed and bring up, having no other sources of livelihood and living in a District which has during the last decade or two turned out to be notoriously expensive.
