J. N. Atkinson Esq.

PRESIDENT, DISTRICT BOARD

KISTNA

To

THE CHIEF SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,

LOCAL AND MUNICIPAL DEPARTMENT,

MADRAS.

SIR,

A. Ramayya the Inspecting School Master, Virinkonda Sub Range applied for two months' privilege leave from 13th July to 12th September 1894.

2. The Treasury Deputy Collector states that the applicant having enjoyed leave on loss of pay for 1 month from 18-12-92 to 18-1-93 is not entitled to the two months' privilege leave applied for by him.

3. The Inspecting School Master was was under training in the Government Training School at Rajahmundry from 27th June 1892 to 10th May 1893 He explains that, during this period he was under article 39 Section II of the Madras Educational rules, granted by the Head Master of the School, two months' leave, one month without loss and the other month on loss of Stipend, although he was then entitled to three months' privilege leave and requests that this leave on loss of Stipend may not be considered to affect his ^{little} privilege leave earned by him as Inspecting School Master.

4. The Treasury Deputy Collector says that the sanction of the Government will have to be applied for on the subject, as

in 80 932 L
13-4-92
(page 10)

as the nature of the leave enjoyed for 1 month on loss of Stipend by the Inspecting School Master during the period of his training cannot be definitely specified.

5. I have therefore the honor to request that Government may be pleased to issue instructions as to whether leave on loss of Stipend granted to Masters under training by the Head Master of the Training Schools under the Educational rules will affect the privilege leave they are entitled to before they are admitted into the Training School.

THE HONORABLE THE CHIEF SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT, FORT ST. GEORGE.

SIR,

I have the honour, in returning the paper referred to me under Endorsement, N^o 805, dated, 13th June 1895, to state that the leave on loss of stipend granted to masters under training should not be made to affect the privilege leave earned by them before their entry into the training school.
2. Under article 449 of the civil service Regulations, subordinates in Government employ are treated while under training, as absent from their appointments on leave without allowances, and the period of training cannot therefore count for privilege leave.
But

But the period is counted for pension and it would be hard to consider the period as an interruption to duty for the purposes of privilege leave earned before the period.

SIR,

With reference to your endorsement No.
1203, dated the 26th August 1895, referring to me for remarks letter from the President District Board, Kistna and the further correspondence connected therewith, enquiring whether leave on loss of stipend granted to masters under training will affect the privilege leave they were entitled to, before they were admitted into the training school, I have the honor to state that under article 449 of the Civil Service Regulations, the time spent under training should be regarded as absence

absence on leave without allowances, and as such it is an interruption of duty within the meaning of article 277 of Civil Service Regulations.
The Inspecting Schoolmaster in question does not therefore appear to be eligible for privilege leave earned before he entered the training School.

From J. N. ATKINSON, Esq., President, District Board, Kistna, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Masulipatam, 18th May 1895, Ref. on C.
No. 1091—D.B. of 1894.

A. Ramayya, the inspecting schoolmaster, Vinukonda Sub-range, applied for two months' privilege leave from 13th July to 12th September 1894.

2. The Treasury Deputy Collector states that the applicant having enjoyed leave on loss of pay for a month from 18th December 1892 to 18th January 1893 is not entitled to the two months' privilege leave applied for by him.

3. The inspecting schoolmaster was under training in the Government Training School at Rajahmundry from 27th June 1892 to 10th May 1893. He explains that during this period he was, under Article 39, Section VI, of the Madras Educational rules, granted by the headmaster of the school two months' leave, one month without loss and the other month on loss of stipend, although he was then entitled to three months' privilege leave, and requests that this leave on loss of stipend may not be considered to affect his title to the privilege leave earned by him as inspecting schoolmaster.

4. The Treasury Deputy Collector says that the sanction of the Government will have to be applied for on the subject, as the nature of the leave enjoyed for one month on loss of stipend by the inspecting schoolmaster during the period of his training cannot be definitely specified.

5. I have therefore the honour to request that Government may be pleased to issue instructions as to whether leave on loss of stipend granted to masters under training by the headmaster of the training schools under the Educational rules will affect the privilege leave they are entitled to before they are admitted into the training school.
