GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

LOCAL AND MUNICIPAL DEPARTMENT.

Read—the following paper:—

From G. STOKES, Esq., President, District Board, Salem, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated 12th January 1895, Ref. No. 3413 L.F.

In forwarding herewith extracts from the proceedings of the district board, dated 17th December 1894, I have the honour to state that the district board has resolved to constitute unions in the villages of Harúr in the Uttangarai taluk and Alangayam in the Tiruppattúr taluk. These villages are compact and important and are suitable to be constituted into unions.

2. It is proposed that house-tax be levied at three-fourth the rates laid down in Schedule A annexed to Local Boards Act in the Harúr union and half the rates in the Alangayam union, and that the hamlets, Attumaveripatti, included in the Harúr union, and (1) Gejjalanaik Reddiyur, (2) Gollathadi, (3) Konkiyur, (4) Pullagur, (5) Naduvamur, (6) Rajapalayam, (7) Bankur, and (8) Garatheruvu, included in the Alangayam union, be exempted from payment as they are small and insignificant places consisting of huts which would yield little or nothing if taxed.

3. Maps showing the position of the villages and a statement showing the particulars required in official memorandum, No. 347, dated 4th June 1890, are enclosed, as also the usual draft notification.

Enclosure.

Extract from the Proceedings of the District Board, Salem, passed at its meeting held on the 17th December 1894.

10. Read proposals of the Taluk Board, Tiruppattúr, of constituting Harúr into a union.

Resolution.—The district board approves the proposal to levy house-tax at three-fourth the maximum in Harúr, the hamlet of Attumaveripatti being exempted. The number of the panchayat may be fixed at 8.

11. Read proposals of the Taluk Board, Tiruppattúr, of constituting Alangayam into a union.

Resolution.—The district board approves the proposal to constitute the revenue villages of Alangayam and Peddur into union and the levy of house-tax at half-rates in the two principal villages; all the eight hamlets marginally shown being exempted from tax. The panchayat should consist of twelve members.

1. Gejjalanaik Reddiyur.
2. Gollathadi.
3. Konkiyur.
4. Pullagur.
5. Naduvamur.

Order—dated 1st February 1895, No. 196 L., Local and Municipal.

The proposals to constitute the Harúr union and to levy house-tax therein at three-fourths the maximum rates are approved and the following notification will be published in the Fort St. George and Salem District Gazettes. The tax should be levied from 1st April 1895 :—

NOTIFICATION.

Under sections 6 and 122 of the Madras Local Boards Act V of 1884, the Governor in Council is pleased to declare that the village of Harúr, in the revenue taluk of Uttangarai, in the Salem district, shall be a union for the purposes of the said Act, and to direct that the provisions of the said Act regarding panchayats shall come into force in the said union from the date of this notification and that the maximum number of members to be appointed for the panchayat of the said union shall, for the time being, be eight. The hamlet of Attumaveripatti will, however, be exempt from payment of house-tax, under section 63.

2. The proposed constitution of the Alangayam union cannot be approved, for the house-tax expected to be realized in it amounts to only Rs. 200 (a sum which would be only sufficient to meet the necessary establishment and contingent charges) and the cost of conserving the union would therefore fall entirely upon the funds of the taluk board.
