With the current read above, the Chairman forwards a copy of the council's resolution declining to sanction the required allotment for the balance of the estimated cost of the improvements to the filterbed. Under these circumstances, the only course open seems to be to insert this item in the revised estimate for the current year under section 251 of the District Municipalities Act.

A.C. 24/9/95

I suppose this is the only thing that can be done — But why Mr. Jones should have meddled in the matter at all, instead of leaving the C. to do as it pleased, I cannot see. These works have, I believe, been finished & handed over & there Mr. Jones' connection with them ended, except that he had to send the Boiler Inspr. to see to Boilers & Engines — This at least is my impression — ~~[illegible]~~ He should be told that he had no business whatever to interfere in the matter without allotment of funds by the C. & should be warned against doing anything of the kind in future.

This ~~case~~ case raises, however, the question of the extent to which Govt., as having contributed a large part of the cost of the waterworks (without stipulating for any power of ~~[illegible]~~ controlling their management or upkeep), should interest itself in them, after they have once been completed. — This is a matter on which H.E. was speaking the other day to the C.E. & me; and my recollection is that the understanding arrived at was that it wd. suffice if Govt. saw that the engines & boilers (the most expensive part of the works & that most likely to be damaged) were properly cared for, the pipes & the rest of the works being left to be looked after by the Munl. C. — A definite understanding on the matter is, however, obviously necessary ~~[illegible]~~ and should be reached; & the papers had better therefore go to H.E. through the C.E. before any order issues

I concur in the view expressed by the Hon. Mr Bliss in the preceding minute —

It is a mistake on the part of the Commit to say that the experiment of the temporary channel proved a failure; on the contrary it was eminently successful, but in the nature of things could be [illegible] arrangement after any [illegible]

I concur in para 2 of the proposed draft — : note to J 2.10.

The statement made by the hon. Mr Bliss is quite in accord with the views expressed by myself & the C.E. when we all discussed this matter the other day — and I quite approve of an order issuing in the sense of his note. The only question is as to the expense of the inspection. I suppose Govt. & the municipalities ought each to bear half — but in the first few years, when the inspections will be few, the expense will be probably too heavy for the municipalities if they are called upon to pay as much as one half — & it might be possible to let them off cheaper. I think we should find out

1. what the cost of the Inspector will be —
2. how many inspections he could make if fully employed — and then
3. charge each municipality one half of what it would cost — supposing him to be fully employed.

I ~~also~~ concur in para 2 of the note as to insertion of the 1200 Rs. in the ~~Municipal budget~~ revised estimates for the current year.

I hardly think Mr Jones shd. be censured for his action — but he might be warned as to the irregularity — & told not to [illegible] it.
