Calling upon the Chairman to report on the progress of the works made in the matter of the Collection of the principal taxes I have the honor to state that the permanent Chairman Mr. R. D. 2. At present, some of the bill Collectors are engaged with the Asst Inspector of Local Fund Accounts who is now auditing the Accounts of this Municipality for the year 1894-95.

Forwarded.

It is not possible for an interim chairman to produce with the work to produce much effect in a short time. It will also take the new chairman some time to get a hold of the threads of business. The request may therefore I think be complied with.
