Sir,
In reply to your official Memorandum dated 22nd ultimo, No 1554, I have the honor to state that by reference to the pay abstracts, it had been already ascertained that the applicant had not committed any serious faults, but only petty neglects, for which he had been fined. The number of times he has been been thus punished has been noted in the Service Register already forwarded.

 Since the receipt of the order under reply, the diaries of the Sanitary Ministry for the past 12 years have been examined, & they disclose warnings now and then and fines on some occasions. As already noted, the character of the applicant was on the whole, fair, having regard to the nature of his duties which are of an irksome nature.

I have the honor to be,
 Sir,

Note for CS.

Please see original of G.O. 243-2. put up Sir. H.E. Stokes' note inside it.

A man who is such as the present man does not appear to come within the description of a man whose labour is "purely manual", & Sir H.E. Stokes did not appear to contemplate the exclusion of the class from claims to gratuity.

Note.

Rule in G.O. 1874 is that gratuity may be granted for "long & good service". This man has 22 years service, & as he has during the course of that time been occasionally warned & fined his service is called "fair". Probably however no master can long escape warnings & fines.

M. 30.95

I am not quite sure that this man's occupation was not "manual": if so he cannot have a right. He has however been in the service of the
