due to the sprightliness of health and ignorance of duties, but not ^{to the} disobedience to the public superiors, misappropriation of public money, public guilt or imposition or perpetrating culpable scandal.
For all the above delineated causes, the President District Board, Gaya, on the recommendation of the chief inspector of schools, First Division, who is quite crippled and feeble, not only to me, but to every individual under him, got me dismissed from the service, which now barricades me to enter any service. Had his honour been kinder enough to dispenze me with my service, I could have acquired my livelihood anywhere.

I am very indignant and meagre, with 10 members in my family, relied on me for support.
All the lives are miserably starving for the present.
I am now in such a calamitous predicament, that I am constrained by jejeunness to go on begging door to door for daily maintenance with this poor family.
Acquiring English education at any difficulty, with the cardinal assistance of the public of my place, passing Matriculation Examination at any expense and undergoing every impediment to this extent, after all profitted me with this in the last. I am now 22 and despair of bearing my livelihood further.
Undergoing any trouble is to live in the public's which I am now disappointed to. I now express before his honour's feet, all my grievances as his honour about 2 years. Altogether I served in for about 4 years and odd. During I discharged my duties to the entire satisfaction of my superiors. But in the last year I was the Inspecting School Master, Son in the Ganjam District, I was danger of Malarial fever, on account of throughout Malga in my jurisdiction winter season, which fever troubled me in the and lasted for 5 months continually. When it first touched me precariously, I took leave for nearly a month. Afterwards it ceased me a little.

Consequently, I retook my charge and used to discharge the duties at any risk. Hence it was difficult for me to learn from my immediate superior, who is too far to my quarters, the duties and what one records should be maintained regularly, and to go in circuit over the villages under my inspection, at a time. However I preserved some books of records in use, that were handed over to my charge by my predecessor and that I knew perfectly to be important. But I did not maintain all the records, which I was unaware of securing indispensably and uncontaminately. But after all, swearing before God, I represent before his honour, that I could not swiftly accomplish my duties. At any rate the work was performed, though in delay. This is all, in my humble opinion,

Chief Secretary to the Board of Revenue, Madras.

My Honoured Sir,

I, the undersigned, Petitioner, most humbly and respectfully beg his honour to be kind enough to bring the following facts into your honourable consideration.

I passed the Matriculation Examination in 1886 and went up for the Examination, but it in vain. In the year 1889, I was appointed as a Teacher in the Native College, now Kallikote College, Beshampore. I there served for about 3 years.
Afterwards, with the mis-arrangement of an influential public officer in our District, who then promised to take me into the service, I, then and there accepted the position and joined the revenue office Beshampore, wherein I was for about a year as a scribe. On my application, I was then appointed as a Teacher in the Local Board school Atka, there I acted for about 2 years and odd; after which I was promoted to the situation of an Inspecting school Master, where I was for
