Endorsement from the Accountant-General, dated 23rd May 1895, No. 75-I.A.E.

ABSTRACT.—Forwarding a copy of the appeal petition presented to the Hon'ble the Judges of the High Court by A. Venkataramanaya against his compulsory retirement from the service.

Official Memorandum to the District Judge, South Canara, dated 10th June 1895, No. 51.

ABSTRACT.—Requesting the District Judge of South Canara to obtain and forward, for the information of Government, a copy of the proceedings of the High Court on A. Venkataramanaya's appeal, dated 6th April 1895.

Letter from the District and Sessions Judge, South Canara, dated 7th August 1895, No. 776.

ABSTRACT.—Forwarding a true extract of the proceedings of the High Court on A. Venkataramanaya's appeal, dated 6th April 1895, declining to interfere with the orders of the District Judge in his case.

Telegram from A. Venkataramanaya, late Head Clerk, District Munsif's Court, Puttur, South Canara District, dated 21st August 1895.

ABSTRACT.—Requesting that orders on his pension-application may be deferred pending receipt of a memorial from him.

Petition from A. Venkataramanaya, late Head Clerk, District Munsif's Court, Puttur, South Canara District, dated 21st August 1895.

ABSTRACT.—Submitting a duplicate copy of his memorial, dated 21st August 1895.

Endorsement of the Judicial Department, dated 24th September 1895, No. 2239.

ABSTRACT.—Transferring to the Pension Department letter from the Registrar of the High Court of Judicature, Appellate Side, Madras, forwarding a memorial from A. Venkataramanaya, dated 21st August 1895, submitting his explanation in regard to the accusation made against him that he accepted Rs. 400 from four clerks junior to him as an inducement to retire from the service.

Order—No. 1220, Pension, dated 19th October 1895.

It has been found by the District Judge of South Canara that the applicant for pension, A. Venkataramanaya, Head Clerk of the District Munsif's Court, Puttur, accepted the sum of Rs. 400 from four clerks junior to him as an inducement to retire from the service; and Government sees no reason to doubt that the above finding was fully justified.

2. There is no reason to suppose that the applicant and those with whom he effected negotiations were ignorant of the well-known regulations which prohibit such transactions, and doubtless every one concerned knew that he was doing wrong. The conduct of the clerks who made payments to Venkataramanaya has been duly noticed by the District Judge, and it is unnecessary for Government to pass any orders in their case. In regard to the applicant, however, it is observed that his misconduct was not limited to breach of rule, but this initial offence was further aggravated by his subsequent withdrawal of his resignation and by his making false and malicious accusations against the head of the office in which he was employed.

3. Upon full consideration of all the facts of the case His Excellency the Governor in Council has arrived at the conclusion that A. Venkataramanaya has forfeited all claim to pension and his application is accordingly rejected.
