From

D. Jagannada Rau Pantulu Garu Deputy Collector of Cumbum Dy.

To

The Collector of Kurnool.

Sir,

I have the honor to state that though it is 5 months since the Cumbum Taluk office has been transferred to Giddalore under the recent orders of Government, still the Hospital at Mundlapad has not been as yet removed thereto. The officials of the Taluk have in consequence to go to Mundlapad whenever there is a necessity for them for medical aid which is I submit detrimental to the official work. There is also sub jail at Giddalore which requires constant Medical Officer's inspection.

2. When the Taluk Office was at Giddalore before its removal to Mundlapad the Hospital was at Giddalore and when the office was removed thither the Hospital appears to have also been removed along with it or sometime afterwards.

I have therefore the honor to request that you will be kind enough to get the Hospital removed to Giddar lore at an early date.

From

Surgeon Major A. L. Patch M.B. C.M. D.P.H.
District Medical & Sanitary Officer
Kurnool.

To

The President, District Board, Kurnool.

Sir,

With reference to letter N^o 2552
^{Eng.}
dated 16th November '94 from the Collector of Kurnool, copy of which is herewith forwarded for your information, I have the honor to request that you will kindly obtain the sanction of Government for the transfer of the Taluk Board Dispensary from Muddalapudi to Giddalore.

At my inspection of this dispensary last month, it was represented to me by the Tahsildar in behalf of the Government Officials and the inmates of the sub-jail, of the inconvenience experienced by the distance they have to travel to obtain medical relief and the Hospital Assistant also informed me of the difficulties he is put to by being constantly summoned to Giddalore.

Under these circumstances, I have no hesitation in concurring with the opinion of the Deputy Collector as per his letter
N^o 2301
^{Rev}
dated 13.11.94, (a copy of which is also herewith submitted) that the dispensary should be removed from Mandlapaud to Giddalore. Current No 80 of 1895.

I believe the sanction of Government is

As I have no doubt that Government will have no objection to the proposed transfer of this Dispensary from Mundlapad to Giddalore, as it is for the public interest, may I in anticipation of such sanction direct the Hospital Assistant to select a suitable building at Giddalore in consultation with the Tahsildar and remove into it at an early date.

FOR ORDERS.

It is evident from G.O. $\frac{92}{3.2.95}$ that the transfer of the taluk office to Giddalur may only be of the most temporary nature. It appears however that the Dispensary is sit in a poor local fund building at Mandlapad, & it w^d. cost very little to remove it to Giddalur.

The Board may be trusted not to be unwise enough to build a pukka dispensary at Giddalur until the question of the future location of the taluk office is permanently decided, & the order need not, it is submitted, say anything upon the point.
