The Government observes that there was no necessity what ever for the Municipal Council to cancel its resolution of the 25th September 95. As the lists of voters prepared in September have been found to be so full of errors, it is but right that elections to fill up the existing vacancies should be postponed until the lists of September 95, come into force, as already sanctioned in G.O. No 2039 M.uis 4th Dec 95.
