in the Uttengarai Taluk suffered in the absence of a permanent incumbent; and on his failure to join appointment on the expiration of his leave I removed his name from the list of Inspecting School Masters. But on his representation that owing to his ill health he was not able to join his appointment and on production of a medical certificate in support of his representation I permitted him to join his appointment which he did on the 13th April 1895. Thus Gopala Gengar overstayed his furlough leave by 3 months and 23 days. Of this period I converted 3 months into an extension of the furlough granted to him as he

Sir,

I have the honor to state that S. Gopala <sup>anjur</sup> Iyengar, Inspecting School master of Ettengarai, was given furlough for one year and nine months i.e. from 21st March 1893 to 20th December 1894. In December 1894, he applied for an extension for 3 months. This, I refused, as I considered that the extension was applied for, with a view to avoid going to Ettengarai, as the Educational Officers represented that the work
