How can this be overlooked in referring to the last annual review?

M. 6295

The fact of the letter not having been received was noticed at the time of drafting the annual review (vide the remark in the margin of the covering letter in the draft of the annual review). But the remark to this effect was added as it was thought that the paper might have been with the Civil officer or the Collector, or the way to foot.
