NO 1292
D.D.From K.C. Manavedan Raja Esquire President, District Board, Nellore.To the Chief Secretary to Government, Local & Municipal Department Madras.

Sir,

With reference to G.O. No. 1421 L. D. dated 12th August 1895, I have the honor to state that the omission of Mr. R. V. K. Seetharamiah Garu's name from the list of voters given in the Taluk Board's resolution was not by mistake. He voted; but his vote was not for Mr. R. V. Lakshminarasu Naidu Garu whom he seconded, but for Mr. R. V. Sarabhiyal Chetty Garu vide the Taluk Board's resolution. Two other members Mr. R. V. Lakshminarasu Naidu Garu and Mr. R. V. Narasinga Rao Garu, proposer and seconder for Mr. R. V. Narasimha Chetty Garu gave their votes not for the latter, but for Mr. R. V. Lakshminarasu Naidu Garu as explained in para 2 of No. 969 D.D. dated 19th July. The President has not given his vote at all either for the one or for the other. Under the above circumstances, I beg to request that Government will be pleased to reconsider the matter and order a fresh election.

I have the honor to
Sir.

Yours most obediently

FOR ORDERS.

At a meeting held by the Ongole Taluk Board to elect a member to the District Board, eleven members were present, including the President. Three members were duly proposed and seconded, but when the votes were taken, six members voted for one of the candidates and the remaining four for another, the President not having voted. Both the candidates, however, voted for themselves and excluding these votes as required in G.O. No. 2250 L., Local and Municipal, dated 3rd November 1894, only five and three votes respectively, were left in their favour, neither of them having ^{thus} secured a majority (six) of the votes of the President and members present at the meeting, as required in no. 6 of the election rules issued in G.O. No. 196 L., Local and Municipal

Municipal, dated 28th January 1887, the President of the District Board recommended that the Government might order a fresh election. The Government, however, considered (vide G.O. No 1421 L., Local and Municipal, dated 12th August 1895) that M. R. R. K. Lakshminarasu Nayudu had secured a majority of votes, including the vote of the seconder, whose name appeared to have been by mistake omitted from the list of voters given in the Taluk Board's resolution.

2. From Current No 27072. read above, however, it appears that the list was correct, the member who had seconded K. Lakshminarasu Nayudu having given his vote in favour of another candidate when the votes were taken! It appears also that the other members who had proposed or seconded the remaining two candidates did not stand by their nominees but voted for others! The President accordingly requests that the Government may be pleased to reconsider

the matter and order a fresh election.

3. Orders are solicited as to whether a member who proposes or seconds a candidate under rule 5 can be permitted, when the votes are taken, to change his mind and give his vote in favour of another candidate.
