Is the Head Quarter of Sivul taluk going to be permanently at Alagadda? Alagadda seems a wretchedly small place, & the main reason for the proposed transfer seems to be that the R. H. Q. are there, which is a poor reason. I have no map showing Alagadda. Please

DEPT.

In the C. No 3034 L. of 1895 the Lug. Genl. approves of the transfer of the Sivul Dispensary to Alagadda, but at the same time proposes that a Dispensary should be opened at Sivul as well, as soon as the Bd. can afford it. Alagadda is a small place, but in the R. H. quarters, as such should have a Dispensary.
Sivul is only 10 miles from Handyal & 12 from Alagadda, has a population of only 2729. There is another village 3 miles off with a population of 1545.
If a new dispensary is suggested at Sivul the Bd. will try to screw enough money to start one, it is submitted that the place is not sufficiently important to render this desirable.

reason for opening ^{re again} another later

SURGEON MAJOR-GENERAL C. SIBTHORPE,

SURGEON-GENERAL WITH THE

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS,

Madras,

To

THE HONORABLE THE CHIEF SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,

Local and Municipal DEPARTMENT.

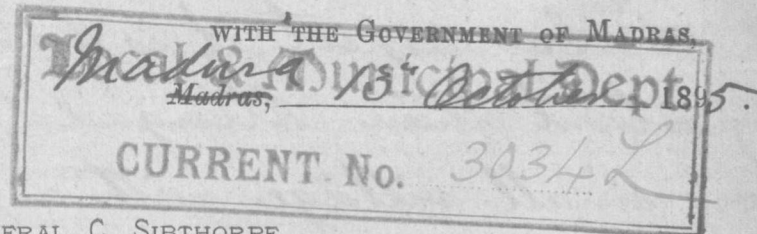

SIR,

In returning your endorsement No 1307 of the 14th September 1895 with its annexures, I have the honour to state that I agree to the transfer of the dispensary from Sirvel to Allagadda which is the present head-quarters of the Sirvel Taluk.

2. At the same time, I consider that Sirvel should not be denuded of a medical institution as it lies on the main road between Mundyal and Allagadda at a distance of 10 and 12 miles respectively from them and is a sufficiently large and important village to have a dispensary of its own. It is said to have a population of 2729 and the adjoining village of Erraguntla which is only about 3 miles has a population of 1545 - so that in this particular

OFFICE OF SURGEON-GENERAL

WITH THE GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

particular respect it is far more im- portant than Allagadda which is a very small village with a population of only 575.

3. Under the above circumstances, I strongly suggest the desirability of a new dispensary being opened at Sirvel as soon as the financial condition of the Board can admit of the extra expenditure ~ being met.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

C. Sibthorpe
