Submitted Memorandum
Camp: Trimmalingam Presidency Board,
12 October 1895 S. Arab

3. It has since been ascertained that this individual draws a pension of Rs. 3-12-0, and this fact was communicated to the Treasury Deputy Collector as required by Article 564 of the Civil Service Regulations. That officer informs me that since the head Constable belongs to the "Retiring" class, he should not have been appointed without the sanction of Government, vide Article 576 of the Civil Service Regulations.

4. I have therefore the honor to request that, if there be no serious objection to the employment of this individual as tank watchman, the sanction of Government may now be obtained.

I have the honor to be,
