Order

From the Draft Bill to amend the Local Boards Act circulated with L.O. dated 1st July 1889, No. 1485 L it will be seen that the Government proposes to fix 12 as the maximum strength of Union Panchayats in future. The present suggestion to raise the maximum strength of the Karasapalam Panchayat from 12 to 16 cannot therefore be approved. Two of the existing members should be asked to resign their seats in order to make room for the ex-officio members of the newly included villages.

Provis.

Note.

The headman of each village is a Union ex-officio member of the Panchayat so that there are at the moment 14 members on this Panchayat though its sanctioned maximum strength is only 12. It seems hard to put pressure on other members to make them resign to make room for the 2 new members. It is submitted that the strength may be raised to 14 in this case. When the new Act is introduced it can come down again to 12. The order may be:- The maximum strength of the Panchayat will be raised to 14. The following notification will be published in the Panchayat Gazette. The draft Bill to amend the Local Boards Act of 1889 is referred to the President of the District Board, Vizagapatam.
