GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

LOCAL AND MUNICIPAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper :—

From A. C. TATE, Esq., President, District Board, Cuddapah, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated 29th October 1895, No. 1031-L.F.

I have the honour to state that there are seven inspecting schoolmasters in this district, one of whom, A. Chennakrishnayya, having been entertained prior to 1881, is already eligible for pension.

2. One of the other men having applied for permission to contribute towards pension, the Assistant Inspector of Schools was asked to ascertain whether the remaining men were also willing to make pensionary contributions, and has reported in the affirmative in his letter, dated 18th September 1895, No. 4801.

3. The papers having been laid before a meeting of the board on 19th October 1895, a resolution was passed. The inspecting schoolmasters may contribute towards pension, and the board also agreed to pay from district board funds towards the pensionary contribution on behalf of A. Chennakrishnayya's appointment.

I therefore request that Government may be pleased to accord sanction for the proposal under Article 863 of the Civil Service Regulations.

An extract from the Proceedings is herewith submitted.
