Resolution No. 68

Read Reference or Current number 999 of the District Board President on 27.3.95 No. 1268-A.M. regarding to reconsider the amalgamation of the village of Deralipatti with the Union of Padam on the remarks pointed out by the President D. Board in para 5 of his No. 75 and to communicate the result 28.6.94 Also Taluk Board President's Inspection note thereon with the connected papers.

The Board as at present considered consider that the inclusion of the village of Deralipatti in the Padam Union is quite unnecessary. As the water of the Derani which is used by the inhabitants for drinking purposes is polluted by the many tanks in the village bathing in it and the village is kept in a most dirty state, they think that if the Derani is conserved by the appointment of a watcher over it and the local nuisance tax is introduced, it will be sufficient for all purposes.
