His Excellency the Right Honorable
The Governor of Madras

CHIEF SECRETARY
5 FEB. 1895
GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

The humble appeal petition of Arunachellachetty, a merchant in the Town of Vellore, North Arcot St most humbly and respectfully sheweth:—

1 ..... That the petitioner had been levied by the Vellore Town Municipality a professional tax of Rs 12 during the last year and during the current year it was increased to Rs 25 without any reason being assigned: The petitioner thereupon submitted an application to the chairman requesting him to review his case and to determine the tax in proportion to his income.

2 ..... That while the petitioner was not favoured with any reply for the said petition, his property has been unjustly attached notwithstanding his personal requests and representations to the effect that the petition has not got the least objection to remit the amount and that his case should be justly considered.

3 ..... That the petitioner further humbly begs to represent that the persons paying income-taxes ranging from Rs 50-60 and so on have been imposed a professional tax of Rs 12 whereas the unfortunate lot who receive an incometax of Rs 35 has to be compelled to pay a professional tax of Rs 25.

4. .... That this incometax of Rs 35 was imposed on the petitioner by the Tahsildar after his personal careful inspection of the petitioner's accounts and incomes, while so it is not known upon what data the chairmen of the municipality used to levy a professional tax of Rs 25.

5. .... That as the petitioner does not deserve such a heavy tax, he requests the gracious government to be so kind enough as to make enquiries into the injustices and impartiality which are being practised in the municipality and to order for a reasonable tax to be imposed on me.

For which act of justice the petitioner ever prays for Excellency's long life and continued prosperity.

The petitioner begs to remain
