f the Coomara Board Godavari passed 26. 7. 1895.

This seems to be a remarkable novel historical & one which would form a particular encouragement precedent: Shows a precedent for which is now being done

32. Petition from P. Rameswaranna widow of late P. Ramakrishnamma, the grandson of P. Rayappaululu garu the founder of Tallakurumu Choultry representative

This is a magnificent paper. might perhaps be a good one in that should be in no 110 precedent can be traced properly

1891. when it was under the authority of G.O. No. 1631/Amis transferred to this Local Board. Ever since it has been under the management of this Board. The actual receipts and charges of the institution for 1894-95 are respectively Rs 5360 and Rs 3173. Its actual accumulated balance up to end of 1894-95 is Rs 10942.

3 The institution was first started with a view to feed 15 persons a day.
Now owing to rise in prices and value of lands, the rentals on Choultry lands, have risen to Rs 5360 a year and there is every prospect of further rise in rentals. Therefore all classes of persons are now freely fed without any limits in the number of persons.

4 Patri Ramowaramma is the widow of Ramakrishnamma the grandson of the original founder of the institution.

note regarding the terms of the original grant please see the Proceedings Letter No. 110 20574 Ld/28
dated 1/95

The widow is now aged about 40 years & reported to be helpless and issueless. She has no property at all to live on. She therefore wants that she should be taken as a pauper and a monthly allowance of Rs 20/- sanctioned for her maintenance from the Choultry funds. The Salug Board thought that Rs 15 would be sufficient for her maintenance.
I therefore beg that the Government will be pleased to accord sanction for the grant of a monthly allowance of Rs 15/- for her maintenance as the Choultry funds can well meet the charge for all the future.

5. I did not apply for this sanction ere this as I had to make further enquiries regarding the status of the widow subsequent to the passing of the Resolution by the Salug Board.

I have the honor to be sir.

This is a very novel proposal and one entirely without precedent. I submit that it should be refused.

His application was the widow of a grandson of the founder has a claim on the choultry - should allow Rs 10 a month.
